Miami Lights and Cuban Nights: A Not-So-Forbidden Getaway

This “not-so-forbidden” getaway combines the vibrant energy of Miami’s beaches and nightlife along with the rich, historic culture of Havana, Cuba.

You and three guests will fly to Miami, Florida and spend two nights at the luxurious FAENA Hotel Miami Beach. FAENA is known for its distinctive architecture, lavish interior design, bold colors, unique installations, and a fusion of glamour and eccentricity. While there, you will have dinner at the famous Prime 112 and indulge in the South Beach Culture.

Then it’s off to beautiful Havana, Cuba for three more nights in a 5-star luxury hotel. This experience is meticulously crafted for individuals who appreciate the art of cigar making, historical exploration, and the vibrant cultural tapestry of Cuba.

You and your guests will continue your getaway being immersed in a unique blend of experiences that will leave you with a deep appreciation for Cuba's traditions and the warmth of its people. Meet your VIP host and driver with a brief stop at the historic Revolution Square, tour one of the oldest cigar factories in the world and observe the different stages of the cigar-making process of the most recognizable brands, such as Cohiba, Romeo y Julieta, and Montecristo. Enjoy a private rum tasting and cigar pairing with the master sommelier of Havana Club Rum. Learn the history and process of rum production in Cuba while sampling the Maestro collection.

Your Cuban adventure continues with an exclusive conversation with the popular University of Havana History Professor who served as Cuba's press and cultural attaché. Try salsa and drum lessons, and take a classic convertible car-ride in the magical lighting of Havana with a professional photographer to capture you and the cars in motion. If you wish, add on a day trip to Las Terrazas – the country's best kept secret!

Visit one of the most famous bars in the world, El Floridita. This was a preferred hangout spot of Hemingway and Hollywood celebrities in the '40s and '50s and is the birthplace of the daiquiri.

With sun-soaked days and sultry nights, this trip promises a perfect blend of Miami's glamour and Cuba's allure. A one-of-a-kind trip curated for the cigar loving and culturally interested enthusiast.

FEATURING:

- Roundtrip airfare for 4 from Phoenix to Miami International Airport
