

Employment

FAMILY COMMUNITY RESOURCE SERVICES

How we can help

For families, employment ensures financial stability, access to healthcare, and the ability to meet basic needs, contributing to the overall stability within the family system. Employment resources reduce barriers like limited job opportunities, insufficient education or training or discrimination and give families the tools they need to be successful.

Local Areas

Arizona Department of Economic Security

For job seekers

Website: des.az.gov/services/employment/job-seekers

Arizona@Work

Services: Provides workforce development services including job search assistance, career counseling, resume building, and training programs for low-income individuals and families.

Contact: (602) 771-1100

Website: arizonaatwork.com

Unemployment Insurance Benefits

Website: des.az.gov/services/employment/unemployment-individual

Goodwill of Central and Northern Arizona

Services: Offers job training, career services, and employment placement assistance for individuals facing barriers to employment, including low-income families.

Contact: (602) 535-4000

Website: goodwillaz.org

JobPath

Services: Assists low-income individuals in Pima County and surrounding areas with job placement, career coaching, and accessing educational opportunities to improve employment prospects.

Contact: (520) 620-8482

Website: jobpatharizona.org

Chicanos Por La Causa (CPLC)

Workforce Development

Services: Provides job training, placement services, and support for low-income families, focusing on connecting them with sustainable employment opportunities.

Contact: (602) 257-0700

Website: cplc.org

The Salvation Army – Employment Assistance

Services: Offers employment services including job placement assistance, resume building, and interview coaching for low-income families in need of stable work.

Contact: (602) 267-4100

Website: salvationarmyphoenix.org

Did you know?

Dialing 2-1-1 in Arizona provides families with free, confidential access to a wide range of resources, including emergency housing, food assistance, healthcare, and childcare services. Available 24/7, this service connects callers to trained specialists who can guide them to support programs tailored to their specific needs.